

Happy Chinese/Kuaile Hanyu Series

Available from CHINA BOOKS 2012

Recently China has taken a big step forward in its promotion of the Chinese language overseas by developing new material that meets the requirements of overseas examinations systems, in particular the British GCSE exam. Four major series have now appeared; of these, Kuaile Hanyu is the one most likely to appeal as a course book for Australian students in Year 5 and upward.

Kuaile Hanyu engages students' interest straight away through the use of appealing cartoon personalities, full colour cartoons and photographs, and bold design, with increasing Chinese content as the series progresses. The dialogue situations are life-like, relevant and familiar, drawn from areas such as family, school, food, environment, work and sports. Each of the three books in the series consists of twenty-four chapters, clustered four to a unit, with a revision summary at the end of each unit.

As in most Chinese-published material, the emphasis is on direct immersion in language exercises, and there are numerous exercises for each new construction. English text is kept to a minimum. Because the emphasis in Kuaile Hanyu is on learning characters and pinyin together, the pinyin pronunciation appears above each character in small text (grouped as a compound where appropriate), providing a more friendly approach for children. All Chinese text is presented in this way. Character-writing exercises are also incorporated in the student textbooks.
