Multibed and Community Acupuncture Workshops: Sydney /Brisbane/ Melbourne 2011

The Acupuncture Network and the Association of Community and Multibed Acupuncture Clinics (ACMAC), invite you join us to discuss ways of making acupuncture affordable to everyone, irrespective of income, and freely available for communities suffering the effects of trauma, poverty or natural disaster.

These workshops will showcase local experiences as well as lessons learned in the UK and USA. A sharing of experience and ideas will be a highlight of the workshops and we welcome your participation and contribution to the program*. We are keen to develop a robust, vibrant & co-operative network of people interested in community and multibed acupuncture in Australia. Facilitated by Katherine Berry with Katherine Japuncic and Jason Chong, afternoon workshops are taking place in:
